

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – 10 January 2011

Amarinth signs new agent in Saudi Arabia

Amarinth, a leading company specialising in the design, application and manufacture of centrifugal pumps and associated equipment to the industrial, chemical and petrochemical industries has further extended its presence in the Middle East by recruiting GAS Arabian Services as its new territory sales and marketing agent for the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

With the aim of building on its recent growth in the region utilising a proven business model already in place for counties such as UAE, Qatar and Oman, Amarith identified GAS Arabian Services as the agent for the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

GAS Arabian Services has been providing integrated services to the Oil and Gas industry within Saudi Arabia for nearly 20 years and has established long standing, successful relationships with a large client and principal base, including Saudi Aramco, SABIC, Sipchem, KJO and Chevron, providing them with integrated Project Engineering, Procurement and Construction Services and Operations and Maintenance Services for existing plants.

The impressive portfolio and project references demonstrated by GAS Arabian Services showed significant synergy with Amarith's current product range and strategy, making it the most outstanding choice of partner to help realise the potential in Saudi Arabia, which continues to see a large amount of new oil and gas project activity. GAS Arabian Services will be representing the full range of Amarith pumping solutions in the region.

Oliver Brigginsshaw, Managing Director of Amarith commented "Our business is continuing to expand rapidly despite the global recession and our new relationship with GAS Arabian Services in Saudi Arabia further adds to our position of strength in the Middle East and enables us to better serve both existing and future customers in the region."
